

The Christian Money Coach

Ozeme J. Bonnette

Ozeme J. Bonnette is a well-known financial coach serving the community throughout California.

She began her financial services career with Merrill Lynch. She decided to move to an independent firm that she felt would allow her to be of better service to her clients. Shortly thereafter, she started Tri-Quest Investment Advisors, a registered investment advisor in the state of California. During the past decade, she has helped retiree and pre-retiree clients efficiently plan their financial futures.

Understanding clients' goals and dreams is an important part of Ozeme's approach to developing financial strategies and solutions for her clients. Knowing that each client is different, she recommends a variety of financial products and services to ensure that the solution is custom designed to meet that client's personal situation.

She is a financial advocate working to increase financial literacy. She has been a newspaper columnist with two weekly and one monthly California newspaper.

She is the author of a book, "Get What Belongs to You: A Christian Guide for Managing Your Finances." It helps readers work toward financial freedom and financial literacy. It is written for the average person who just needs an extra push and encouragement to get back on track or to stay on track.

She leads His WILL Ministries, designed to help people excel in four areas:

personal	W ealth
financial	I ndependence
new	L ife
lasting	L egacy

Through community education programs, high schools, churches, and businesses, she has taught courses to thousands of investors and students in the areas of budgeting, credit repair, investing, retirement planning, and college funding.

For the past five years, she has also been a staff instructor at Cottonwood Leadership College in Los Alamitos, California, where she teaches Biblical Economics.

Ms. Bonnette earned three undergraduate degrees at California State University, Fresno and achieved her MBA at UCLA's Anderson School of Business.
